This letter is in further response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated August 13, 2018 for access to George W. Bush Presidential records pertaining to Justice Brett Kavanaugh. FOIA requests for George W. Bush Presidential records are processed and reviewed for access under provisions of the 1978 Presidential Records Act, as amended (PRA) (44 U.S.C. §§ 2201-2209), which incorporates the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552) in substantial part.

All necessary steps were taken to segregate and release non-exempt information. The 56,855 electronic files restricted from access, in whole or in part, are listed along with the exemption categories below. Some electronic files may be restricted under more than one category. The remaining 49,669 electronic files are available, in whole or in part.

By filing an appeal, you give the agency a chance to reconsider your request and the agency's decision. To appeal a FOIA exemption, the appeal must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Deputy Archivist of the United States, c/o the George W. Bush Library and Museum, 2943 SMU Boulevard, Dallas, TX 75205. You should explain why you believe this response does not meet the requirements of the FOIA and you should also include a copy of your original request and our denial. Your appeal letter and envelope should be clearly marked "FOIA Appeal." Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. The Library will coordinate your appeal with the appropriate authority.

Since these are Presidential records administered in accordance with 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, NARA must notify the former and incumbent Presidents prior to the release of any information in response to these appeals. Once an appeal determination is made and the notification period has passed, we will contact you.

Please note that six electronic files responsive to your request have been withheld pursuant to PRA restriction P1 and FOIA exemption (b)(1), (national security classified information). In order to facilitate our ability to more quickly seek a declassification review for those specific documents that are of interest to you, we are no longer referring all classified documents processed in response to your FOIA request to the originating and/or equity agencies for a current classification review. Based on the information provided on our withdrawal sheets, you can request under your existing FOIA or through the mandatory declassification review provisions of Executive Order 13526 a declassification review of those specific documents of interest to you.

The remaining pages are open for research. Due to the high public interest in these requests, responsive records are posted on our website as they become available; accordingly, no fees are required.

If you wish to order copies or need any further assistance, please contact our staff at 214-346-1557 or gwbush.library@nara.gov. Your FOIA case log number is 2018-0268-F. Please have this number accessible for reference during any future contact concerning this case.
